

Politics 2020/2021 Pre-course task

1) Please read and cut out/print off/keep each week at least:

- One article on British Politics- it can be anything but choose something that interests you.
- One article on American Politics- again, choose something that you find interesting:
  - Could be the impending November Presidential election
  - Updates on Trump
  - State news
  - Constitutional controversies
  - Etc

- What are the main points of the articles?
- Does the article have a bias?
- What do you think of the article?

Plenty of information online. Please bring everything with you to our first lesson.
