You said and we did...

- ▶ You said - Parents also still felt that some subject/staff were still using terms like exams/tests that cause unnecessary anxiety amongst the students. Parents think terms like “quizzes” for example may work better. MH will check with staff regarding terminology for assessments

- ▶ We did - MH advised staff to use the terminology “Low Stake Quiz”

In addition to this we have made changes to some of the compulsory items students needed in the policy (i.e. the ability to choose a plain black jumper without a logo), to try and reduce uniform costs for parents and to increase the availability of where parents can purchase students uniform.
