

Politics Pre-course Task

Over the summer please read and cut out/print off/keep:

- Articles on two UK Political issues - the issues can be anything, but choose something that interests you.
- Articles on two American Political Issues - again, choose something that you find interesting: - Could be the impending Presidential nominations for example.

Alongside your articles please add your own commentary, this should include:

- What are the main points of the articles?
- Does the article have a bias?
- What do you think of the article?

This task can be presented electronically or on paper in any format you wish:

There is plenty of information online. Please bring everything with you to our first lesson.

Any questions please feel free to ask mhenman@budmouth-aspirations.org