

Animal Parade

Year 7 Summer Term

Iain MacArthur

Iain MacArthur is a freelance artist based in London, England. He graduated from Swindon College with a degree in HND Illustration and fine art.

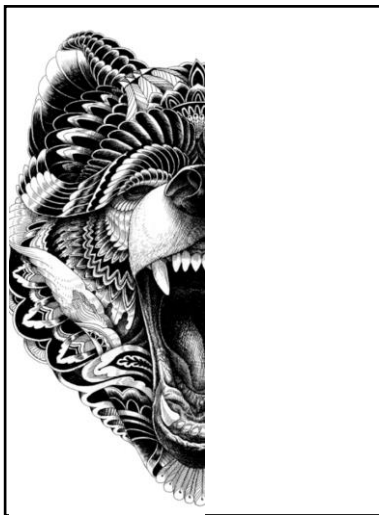

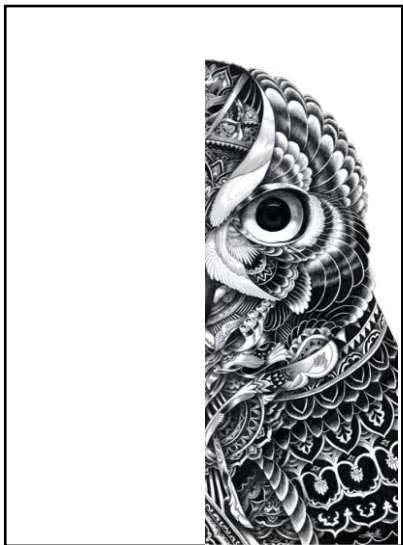

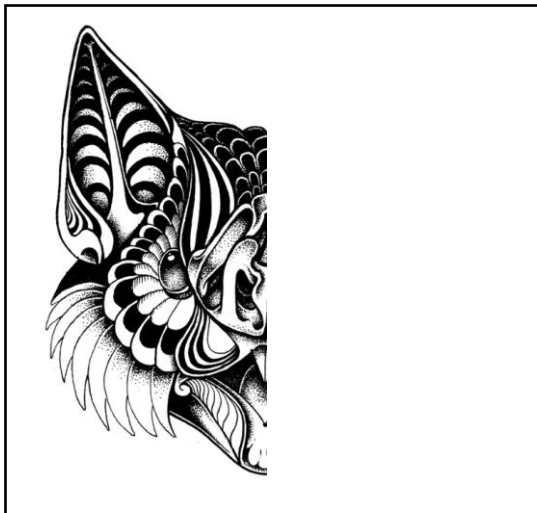

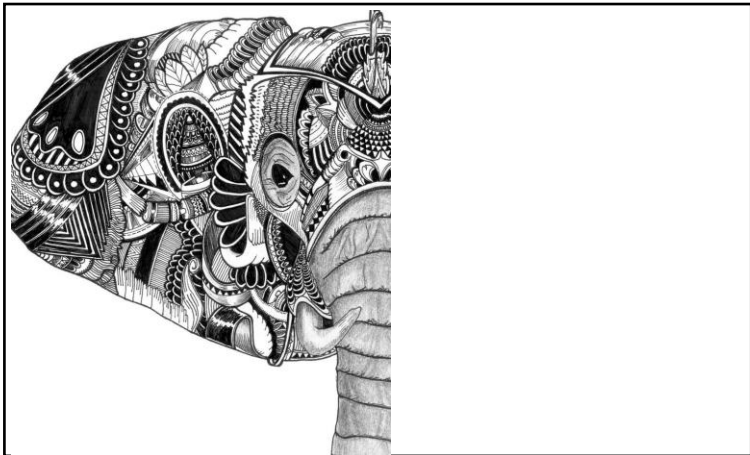

His work is very diverse and has many elements to it such as surrealism, monochrome patterns, nature and oriental culture. He also inspired by anime, American and polish folk art and art nouveau.

He is currently working self employed at my studio in east London.

He specialise in creating t-shirt designs, print designs, posters, album art, logos, branding, editorial illustration and private commissions.

Draw half a Iain MacArthur piece of work you can take one of these images and enlarge it in to your learning booklet in the space provided and then drawing the empty half. Start with pencil and then use biro, fine liner and felt tips to develop these

